Overview/Accreditation

The South Carolina Licensure information has been revised to read:

Licensure is not an endorsement or guarantee of quality. If students at the Charleston, Columbia, Greenville, and Myrtle Beach Metropolitan Campuses have complaints about a classroom situation, they should first attempt to resolve the situation with the instructor. If resolution cannot be made with the instructor, or if the complaint is about a general school policy over which the instructor has no jurisdiction, then they may contact the school director for mediation. If the complaint cannot be resolved at the school level through its complaint procedure, students may file a complaint with the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education. The complaint form is available at http://www.che.sc.gov/CHE_Docs/AcademicAffairs/License/Complaint_procedures_and_form.pdf.

Course Descriptions/HIST

HIST 3130 was omitted in error from the list of course descriptions. The description is as follows:

HIST 3130 History of Human Rights (3)

This course explores the development of international human rights as theory and practice. It discusses traditional concepts of sovereignty and national belonging and then looks at two monumental events that created new possibilities for "moral intervention" across international borders: The French Revolution and the birth of the anti-slavery movement in the context of European imperialism. The course also explores the rise of global governance and human rights movements both on the local and the global level.

Nursing (BSN)

Under Program Description, the third paragraph should read:

Students may begin the program in January or August of each calendar year. The program is tailored to working adults, offering part-time enrollment and eight-week terms. To accommodate individuals' unique learning preferences, classes are offered in two formats: face-to-face or online. Students may attend evening face-to-face classes at the St. Louis campus and at select St. Louis-area corporate partner sites. Registered nurses with licensure in the states of Arkansas, Kentucky, Missouri or South Carolina can take advantage of our convenient online program.
