

Kindermusik® Level 4

3.5 – 5 years with a caregiver

ACTIVITIES

- Listening to a variety of sounds, including music from individual instruments and complete compositions that highlight specific genres, cultures, composers or concepts
- Playing instruments with an emphasis on steady beat, repeated rhythm patterns, graphic notation, and ensemble music
- Experiencing various types of movement including creative movement, group dances and movement that explores concepts like high/low or staccato/legato
- Singing a variety of songs in an appropriate range
- Introduction to music concepts and vocabulary

SKILLS & BENEFITS

- Enhanced self-awareness, refined listening skills
- Heightened sense of creativity
- Development of sensory, motor, and cognitive skills
- Increasing pitch accuracy, memory recall, and sequencing abilities
- Ability to cooperate within a group, exhibit self-control, and listen attentively
- Stronger foundation for language and literacy
- Strengthened brain connections used to integrate new learning, make decisions, and think critically