Description

Students examine various operations issues such as launch facilities, SV design and development, ground control infrastructure, and end user support operations. Manning, technical support, outsourcing, and other issues impacting operations management are included. The International Space Station (ISS) is used as a potential course topic for examining large-scale low-Earth operations. Long-term projects such as lunar and Mars missions are potential projects for research.

Requisites

None

Outcomes

The student will:

- Be able to identify mission objectives, functional requirements, and constraints.
- Examine current associated space operations management issues.
- Be exposed to out-sourcing, privatizing, and commercialization issues related to space systems.
- Identify key space mission cost drivers and understand how to perform trade studies among key elements of the space mission for different mission concepts.
- Develop acceptable mission concepts and associated space-mission architectures.
- Gain experience in allocating resources to functions for each mission phase.
- Assess the relative complexity and cost of space operations.
- Identify and justify reasons for choices among mission technical alternatives.
- Demonstrate their ability to understand, synthesize and apply the knowledge gained in this course through oral discussions and written examinations.

Institutional Policies

Academic Policies

Academic policies provide students with important rights and responsibilities. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with all academic policies that apply to them. Academic policies for undergraduate students can be found in the Undergraduate Studies Catalog; graduate students should review the Graduate Studies Catalog.

Undergraduate Studies Catalog

The Undergraduate Studies Catalog contains academic policies that apply to all undergraduate students. The academic policies and information section of the catalog contains important information related to attendance, conduct, academic honesty, grades, and more. If you are an undergraduate student, please review the catalog each academic year. The current Undergraduate Studies Catalog is at:

<http://www.webster.edu/catalog/current/undergraduate-catalog/> (<http://www.webster.edu/catalog/current/undergraduate-catalog/>)

Incomplete

There are important policies that govern grades of Incomplete (I), including the circumstances under which Incomplete grades are granted, deadlines for completion, and consequences should the remaining course work not be completed. It is the responsibility of a student who requests an Incomplete to ensure that they understand and follow the policies.

Grade Appeals

Instructors are responsible for assigning grades, and student should discuss grade issues with the instructor. Policies and procedures for appealing grades are available in the appropriate catalog.

It is essential that all classes meet for the full instructional time as scheduled. A class cannot be shortened in length. If a class session is cancelled for any reason, the content must be covered at another time.

Important Academic Resources

Academic Accommodations and Support

At Webster University, we understand that all students learn differently and may have specific, often differing, learning needs. Some examples are doing rather than watching, being active instead of sitting still, and taking frequent breaks. For others, the professor needs to speak louder, give more clear instructions, and be understanding with health issues. Regardless of what makes learning easier for you, our goal is to provide the most accessible learning environment possible for each student. If there are any specific needs you'd like to make your instructors personally aware of, including any academic accommodations, please reach out to them directly.

Webster University supports students in several ways. Students with academic/learning, health, physical, and psychological disabilities and students who have accessibility concerns can reach out to Webster's Academic ADA Coordinator at disability@webster.edu. You can also reach out if you have any questions relating to accessibility.

Online resources through WorldClassRoom (Canvas) have a variety of accessibility tools, provided through a program called Ally, for both students and faculty. Ally is free and already incorporated into WorldClassRoom. It helps students who have visibility and attention challenges; who need easier access to course materials from mobile phones, tablets, electronic readers, etc.; or who need or prefer file types different from the format uploaded by the instructor. You can find more information about Ally at <https://webster.edu/online/ally.php> (<https://webster.edu/online/ally.php>).

Life circumstances can make focusing on education, or anything else, difficult. For this reason, several additional resources and services are available to students at no cost:

1. Reeg Academic Resource Center (<https://websteru.sharepoint.com/sites/ReegARC> (<https://websteru.sharepoint.com/sites/ReegARC>))
 - Academic Counseling: academiccounseling@webster.edu
 - Assistive Technology: atacr@webster.edu
 - Disability Accommodations: disability@webster.edu
 - Testing Center: arc@webster.edu
 - Tutoring: tutoring@webster.edu
 - Writing services: writing@webster.edu
2. Counseling and Life Development (<https://www.webster.edu/student-counseling.php> (<https://www.webster.edu/student-counseling.php>)): 314-968-7030 or counselingld@webster.edu (these contact methods are non-confidential, but appointments are confidential)

Lastly, circumstances change. If, at any point throughout your education, you find that something is making learning difficult for you, please reach out to your instructor directly and/or to Webster's ADA team. It is never too late to ask for accommodations. We entirely support you and want you to have the best and most accessible education possible.

Student Success Portal

Webster University's Student Success Portal, powered by Starfish, is a communications tool to connect students with faculty members and campus support services. It allows faculty and staff members to communicate with you regarding academic achievements as well as areas where support may be helpful. You may use the portal to contact faculty and staff members for assistance and to arrange meetings. Activity in the portal will be communicated to your Webster University email account. The Student Success Portal is available via your course home page in WorldClassRoom or via Connections. Learn more about the Student Success Portal at <https://www.legacy.webster.edu/success/students.html>. (<https://www.legacy.webster.edu/success/students.html>)

University Library

Webster University Library is dedicated to supporting the research needs and intellectual pursuits of students throughout the university's worldwide network. Resources include print and electronic books, journal articles, online databases, DVDs and streaming video, CDs and streaming music, datasets, and other specialized information. Services include providing materials at no cost and research help for basic questions to in-depth exploration of resources. The gateway to all of these resources and services is <http://library.webster.edu> (<http://library.webster.edu/>). For support navigating the library's resources, see <http://libanswers.webster.edu/> (<http://libanswers.webster.edu/>) for the many ways to contact library staff.

Drops and Withdrawals

Drop and withdrawal policies dictate processes for students who wish to unenroll from a course. Students must take proactive steps to unenroll; informing the instructor is not sufficient, nor is failing to attend. In the early days of the term or semester, students may DROP a course with no notation on their student record. After the DROP deadline, students may WITHDRAW from a course; in the case of a WITHDRAW, a grade of W appears on the student record. After the WITHDRAW deadline, students may not unenroll from a course. Policies and a calendar of deadlines for DROP and WITHDRAW are at:
